Dear Sayyedna,

The Antiochian Orthodox Union of Canada must disburse part of the donations received as scholarship for needy students to keep the status of a charitable organization and be able to continue helping.

We ask you kindly to inform our parishes in Canada to publicize this information among their students' members.

To benefit from a scholarship, the student must:

- Be enrolled full time in a Canadian University or a Canadian High School (CEGEP) and has good marks (minimum B average)
- Be a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident
- A letter from the parish priest that the student is member of an Antiochian Orthodox parish
- A copy of the completed application (PDF to be downloaded from our FaceBook page):

to be sent with the following documents:

- Copy of the Social Insurance Number card
- Copy of a proof of admission to a full-time university program with list of courses to be taken
- Copy of the academic results during the previous year.
- Copy of the parents latest Revenue Canada assessment
- The completed documents should be e-mailed to the address by November 30, 2025:
