Prayer

Having beheld the Resurrection of Christ, let us worship the Holy Lord Jesus, the only sinless one. We venerate Your Cross, O Christ, and we praise and glorify Your Holy Resurrection, for You are our God, and we know no other than You: we call on Your name. Come, all you faithful, let us venerate Christ's holy Resurrection, for behold, through the Cross joy has come into all the world. Let us ever bless the Lord, praising His Resurrection, for by enduring the Cross for us, He has destroyed death by death.

Pascha

In our Orthodox Church the Feast of Feasts is Pascha, which means "Passover," and it remembers the new and everlasting covenant foretold by the prophets, which was fulfilled by Christ's Resurrection. It is a time of exultant joy and celebration, because Christ has broken the power of death!

In the Christian context Pascha signifies a passing over from death to life, from earth to heaven, a day of victory, the Day of the Kingdom of God. With heart-felt meaning, these words are sung during Pascha:

This is the day which the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Pascha is celebrated by the church with special solemnity. The candles, flowers, and vestments all denote the flood of joy and grace, which proceed from the Resurrection of the Saviour. Christ is Risen! Truly He is Risen!
